Urban Ground is the ultimate destination for tenants looking for rental apartments in Berlin. Urban Ground was started in 2017 with the simple question of whether we could make the whole renting process more gratifying and uncomplicated? Steps such as a transparent rental process, online paperwork, and a bilingual approach have been taken by us to move towards the fulfilment of this goal. Our platform provides the fastest rental booking in the industry. If you already have the paperwork ready, in under 24 hours you can rent your new apartment through our convenient online process. You don't even need to move from your couch to finalize your Berlin apartment. We believe in keeping the customer on a pedestal and building meaningful customer relationships. Providing personal viewing either online through video calls or offline, with no hidden costs, flexible length of stay, and additional services after the move-in is a part of our duty. We also accept non-german documents from people who have just moved to Berlin from other countries so that they don't have to run around to arrange such documents. Our base of 1400+ happy tenants and 500+ properties shows our dedication and growth towards optimum service.
